

Title X National Clinical Conference 2008

Agenda "At a Glance" as of 2/28/2008 – Subject to Change

Sunday, August 3, 2008 9:00 AM – 6:00 PM

Pre-conference Optional Skill-building Sessions *

		Microscopy Skills Practicum*	Male Exams Practicum*	IMPLANON™ Clinical Training*	Initial Preceptor Training
Title X 2008: Implementing the Clinical Guidelines (for clinicians new to Title X & those needing a refresher)	CTCFP Trained Preceptors: Sharing Successes and Addressing Challenges Together	Microscopy Skills Practicum * (Repeat)	Male Exams Practicum* (Repeat)	IUC Insertion* Practicum	Initial Preceptor Training (continued)

*Timeframes vary * Additional fee applies.*

Monday, August 4, 2008 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Welcome Title X providers to the first ever national conference dedicated to Title X clinicians! Susan Moskosky, MS, RNC & Susan Orr, PhD, MA
Evidence Based Contraceptive Management— Michael Policar, MD, MPH Focus on new methods and new information on older methods. Emphasis on high risk patients, headaches/migraines, acne, breakthrough bleeding, medical contraindications, drug interactions & method effectiveness.
Pap Management: Making Sense of the Science - Michael Policar, MD, MPH
Case studies related to content above and new follow-up guidelines
Lunch in the Pavilion: CTCFP Update-Jacki Witt, JD, MSN, WHCNP, CNM
The Nursing Practice Doctorate: Critical Conversations for Stakeholders – Thad Wilson, PhD, APRN
Practical Strategies for Implementing Comprehensive Male Service Programs – Amanda Stukenberg, BA
Discussion Groups at Table: Enhancing Services to Males
Breakout Sessions
Sexual History Taking for Clinicians (includes males) Barbara Kass-Annese, RNCNP, MSN	Communicating in Special Situations: Delivering Difficult Messages Sharon Schnare, RN, FNP, CNM, MSN, FAANP	Pregnancy Testing: Client-Centered Strategies Jacki Witt, JD, MSN, WHCNP, CNM	Abnormal Breast Findings: Addressing Women's Concerns across the Lifespan Michael Policar, MD, MPH	Initial Preceptor Training (continued)

Monday Evening Optional Skill-Building Sessions* 4:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Endometrial/Vulvar Biopsy*	IMPLANON™ Clinical Training (repeat)*	Advanced Pelvic Exam Techniques*	CTCFP Trained Preceptors: Enhancing Effectiveness	Initial Preceptor Training (continued)
-----------------------------------	--	---	--	---

*Timeframes vary * Additional fee applies.*

Tuesday, August 5, 2008 8:00 AM – 4:45 PM

Counseling Challenges: Five Minute Interventions for Clinicians - Sharon Schnare, RN, FNP, CNM, MSN, FAANP Techniques for dealing with behavioral issues quickly and effectively such as 5 minute depression assessment; 5 minute sexual assault/DV assessment; 5 minute smoking cessation intervention; 5 minute sexual dysfunction intervention, obesity intervention
Enhancing Services to Adolescents – Erica Monasterio, MN, FNP Understanding adolescent brain development & sexual decision making and impact on contraception & STI prevention.
Discussion Groups: Improving Service Delivery to Teens
Enhancing Client-Centered Communication with Diverse Populations - Nhan Tran, PhD, MHS
Lunch
Luncheon Address: Preconception Counseling & Care– Michael Lu, MD, MS, MPH
Is it Acute? Is it Chronic? Evaluating Pelvic Pain Jan Shepherd, MD	Best Practices in Clinic Efficiency Patrice Zink, MA & Susan Gadon, MPA	Pharmacology Update: Common Non-contraceptive Drugs Susan Rawlins, BS, NP, MS	Evaluation/Management of Abnormal Uterine Bleeding Julie Strickland, MD, MPH	Initial Preceptor Training (continued)
Current Approaches to STI Evaluation and Treatment - Jan Shepherd, MD Includes new HPV treatment guidelines and vaccine update
Integrating Complimentary and Alternative Therapies into your Practice Richard J. Derman, MD, MPH & Barbara Kass-Annese, RNCNP, MSN				